

DocuWare Software License Agreement

This Agreement contains the terms upon which you (hereinafter: the Licensee) are granted the right to use software standard product (hereinafter: the Software) of DocuWare GmbH, Germany, (hereinafter DocuWare) and its licensors, which Licensee has acquired from a third party Software vendor authorized by DocuWare (hereinafter: the Vendor).

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING LICENSING TERMS AND CONDITIONS CAREFULLY! By installing, copying or otherwise using the Software, you agree with the following terms and conditions. IF YOU SHOULD NOT AGREE WITH THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, YOU MAY NOT CONTINUE INSTALLING OR USING THE SOFTWARE. IN SUCH CASE CANCEL THE INSTALLATION PROCESS IMMEDIATELY. YOU MAY THEN RETURN THE SOFTWARE FOR A REFUND OF THE LICENSE FEE FROM THE VENDOR.

I. License and usage rights

1. Subject to the payment of the agreed license fee and the following conditions DocuWare grants to Customer a non-exclusive, subject to Para 12 and 13 of this Section transferable right to install and use for internal purposes software that (i) is created by DocuWare or offered under the trademark of DocuWare (hereinafter "DocuWare Software"), or (ii) is not DocuWare Software (hereinafter: "Third Party" Software) in conjunction with the documentation and any material accompanying the software (the Documentation) and the license key.
2. A DocuWare System is the entirety of software components which are technically or logically linked to each other and as such administered within one common administration instance. Each DocuWare System contains logical entities of one or more Organizations. Such Organization technically represents inside the DocuWare System the company or the public administration of the Customer. The individual DocuWare software products and modules which can be installed in a DocuWare System contain a license for usage of the Software. Such a license is specifically issued to the one Organization of the Customer who purchased the software if not otherwise stated.
3. In the event that Customer had acquired a Client License up to and including September 2017, such license can after installation either be used as one Concurrent License or converted by the system administrator into two Named Licenses. In the event that Customer had acquired Named Client Licenses in or after October 2017, each four Named Client Licenses can be converted into a Concurrent License by the system administrator. A user can use a Client License for the DocuWare Client Software and for Add-on Modules. A Client License used as a Concurrent License entitles the Customer to use the DocuWare Software on an unlimited number of workstations, provided that the multiple work-station/network system technically prevents the number of users from being able to work at the same time (simultaneously) as members of the Organization in any manner with DocuWare Software which exceeds the total number of available Concurrent Licenses. Named Client Licenses entitle the Customer to assign such license to one named user and allow only this one user the exclusive usage of the DocuWare software. All workstations, especially mobile PCs which are consistently or partially off-line from the network in which the DocuWare system is installed, requires a Named Client license.
4. In the event that Customer had acquired a Site License (available up to and including September 2017), such license may be used to install and use DocuWare software on an unlimited number of workstations of an Organization, provided that all users are physically located within one site. A site is defined as one building or as a group of buildings which is not divided by any public roads. Any usage of DocuWare software through users who are physically located outside such site require extra Named or Concurrent Licenses. DocuWare Software or any portion of such software may also be used temporarily but not permanently outside the site, if it is installed on a mobile computer (notebook, laptop etc.) and if this mobile computer is administered from this site.
5. A purchased Server License may be used to install and use the respective DocuWare Server

Software on one server only. If such DocuWare Software requires or allows the installation and usage of portions of the DocuWare Software on different servers it may be installed and used on different servers on condition that no identical portion of such DocuWare Software is installed and used on more than one server. Such installed DocuWare Server Software although licensed by one specific Customer may also be used by all other Customer who's logical Organizations reside in the same DocuWare System.

6. In the In the event that Customer has acquired an Add-On Module License, the respective DocuWare Add-On Module may be installed and used through any user of the Customer's Organization, provided that this user in the same moment uses a valid DocuWare Client License.

7. In the event that Customer wants to acquire additional Licenses for a DocuWare System, Customer must be using the most current version of all DocuWare components in such system and a current maintenance and support subscription has to be in place.

8. In the event Customer acquires a Programmer's Toolkit License - also referred to as Software Development Kit ("SDK") - then Customer has a nonexclusive, non-transferable, non-sub licensable and royalty-free right to reproduce and distribute executable files created using the SDK. Customer is being granted a nonexclusive, non-transferable, non-sub licensable and royalty-free right to reproduce and distribute the runtime modules of the SDK provided that Customer: (a) distributes the runtime modules only in conjunction with and as a part of Customer's software product; (b) does not use DocuWare's name, logo, or trademarks to market his software product; (c) includes DocuWare's copyright notice for the SDK as part of the sign-on message for his software product; and (d) indemnifies, holds harmless, and defends its licensor from and against any claims or lawsuits, including attorney's fees, that arise or result from the use or distribution of his software product. The "runtime modules" are those files in the SDK that are identified in the accompanying written materials as required during execution of Customer's software program.

No Multiplexing – no License pooling: In any case the Customer has to ensure, that every user who gets direct or indirect access to DocuWare software components - including all server components - or to DocuWare data through usage of non-DocuWare software is also using a valid DocuWare Client License, either as Named or Concurrent License.

9. In case and to the extent Customer has acquired from DocuWare licenses to any Third Party Software, DocuWare reserves the right to limit Customer's license rights pursuant to the requirements of the licensing terms between DocuWare and the Third Party licensor. In the event a Microsoft SQL-Server license is acquired by Customer, the respective license is, in addition to the limitation set forth above, (i) for a Runtime License also runtime restricted and (ii) according to the license description within the price list may possibly only be used in conjunction with DocuWare Software. If it is limited for the use in conjunction with DocuWare, the aforementioned Third Party Software may not be used for any purpose of development and/or in conjunction with applications, da-tabases or schedules that are not contained in DocuWare Software. However, it is permitted through the use of appropriate tools, to access those databases and schedules that are generated by DocuWare Software.

10. Nothing in the General Business Terms entitles Customer to use any name or trademark of DocuWare for any purpose whatsoever, or to use any other name or mark confusingly similar thereto, without the express written consent of DocuWare, save as expressly set forth in these terms and conditions.

11. None of the Deliverables may be modified adapted, disassembled, decompiled, reconstructed or transformed, unless and to the extent permitted by mandatory law.

12. Customer may permanently transfer any software and Documentation acquired from DocuWare to third parties, whether against consideration or free of charge, provided that (i) Customer has completely transferred the software and the Documentation to such third party, and (ii) Customer has concluded with such third party a license agreement, which license terms and confidentiality obligations shall be for the third party at least as restrictive as the respective terms of these general terms and conditions, and (iii) such third party has agreed to procure from DocuWare a new license key after compensating DocuWare for all costs incurred by DocuWare for generating such license key. In case the above requirements are met, Customer shall (i) completely transfer the Software and the Documentation by delivering all original data carriers to such third party and (ii) completely deliver any copy made thereof to such third party or, at its option, destroy any not transferred copies thereof. With the completion of transfer of the software Customer's right to use the software and the Documentation shall lapse immediately.

13. Customer shall be entitled to transfer the software and the Documentation to third parties on a non permanent basis, provided that (i) such transfer shall not be made for profit purposes (e.g. leasing, Software-as-a-Service), and (ii) Customer has concluded with such third party a license agreement, which license terms and confidentiality obligations shall be at least as restrictive for such third party as the respective terms of these general terms and conditions, and (iii) such third party has agreed to procure a new license key from DocuWare for all costs incurred by DocuWare for generating such license key. When the third party is using the software, Customer shall have no right to use the Software and the Documentation. Any non permanent transfer of the software to third parties for a profit purpose (e.g. leasing, Software-as-a-Service) shall not be permitted, unless DocuWare has granted Customer its prior written consent.

14. If Customer intends to export the software in a country outside the EU, Customer shall obtain all information regarding the export regulations (Bundesausfuhramt, 65760 Eschborn/Taunus) and obtain all permits, ordinances, order or regulations covering such export.

Customer's right to use the software and the Documentation shall lapse with immediate effect through any use that is not in strict compliance with this Section I.

In case this is not possible at economically reasonable conditions, Vendor shall (i) indemnify and hold harmless Licensee against any reasonable legal costs and third party claims caused by such intellectual property right infringement up to the amount of an appropriate license fee, which the owner of the intellectual property right could claim directly from Vendor for the use of the infringing Software, or (ii) in compliance with the agreed specification modify the infringing Software to become non infringing, or (iii), if item (ii) is not possible at economically reasonable conditions, direct Licensee to stop using the Deliverables and refund to Licensee the licensee fee less a reasonable reduction for the time of actual use of Software by Licensee.
